

I beatben ffiarbariem. CHAPTER X. BRONZE. SECTION 159. Barbarism. The A ztecs, Quichuans, Chaldeans, A ssyrians, Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Etruscans, and the ancient Egyptians, Persians, Jews, Teutons, and Celts were, and the modern Chinese, Hindoos and Mohammedans are, above the level of savagism and yet decidedly below the civilization of the Greeks of the Vth. century B. c., and of the modernE uropeans. We need some one word to express the cultural condition of the peoples between savagism and civilization; and we have in English no better term for the purpose than barbarism, which is used in that sense by authors of high authority; though by others it is employed as synonymous with savagism. The word heathen is applied to all nations except [J ews], Christians and Mohammedans. Il npreparing this volume for the press, it was found convenient to include in it all the leading barbarous nations save theM ohammedans and ancient Jews; and therefore the subject of this volume is Heathen Barbarism.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
