

Children from four to eight years of age will love to have this book read to them, whereas children from nine to twelve years old will enjoy reading it themselves. Cayleanna Spencer wanted a horse more than anything. She is delighted when her Uncle Ray finds Lucky, a beautiful golden horse, that she can have. She immediately falls in love with him. However, she is dismayed when she learns the buckskin horse has problems--serious problems. He doesn't like to stay penned up in his stall or the pasture and has become an escape artist. Also, he doesn't want Caylee to catch him because he doesn't want to be ridden. The elusive horse turns Chester, the other horse, loose, along with all the rest of the farm animals. Utter chaos results. Caylee and Uncle Ray must use all their skills and intelligence to outsmart the sneaky horse. They must change his mind and attitude about life on the farm.
