

We have all had the moment when our eyes connected with that guy or girl across the room; it was a magic moment. There was a rush of emotions when we saw him or her the first time. Butterflies swarmed in our stomachs when they walked by and we merely caught a glimpse of them. They were on our minds constantly and we dreamt of the next time we might see them. On the other end of the spectrum, most of us also know the heartache that comes when a relationship is ended badly. The feeling leaves us questioning whether it is even possible to date properly, without getting your heart broken. Is it really possible to break up with someone and not cause relational turmoil for us and others? Can we date while still honoring God? Yes, but we must first learn the Biblical principles God has set forth in order to pursue the dating relationship. All proceeds from this book go to Breakaway Ministries (Breakawayministries.org) and Impact Retreat (Impactretreat.com).
