

Praised by the Chicago Sun-Times for its "œfurious, indignant power," this story offers a rare, funny, bitter, and feminist look at war. First published in London in 1930, Not So Quiet... (on the Western Front) describes a group of British women ambulance drivers on the French front lines during World War I, surviving shell fire, cold, and their punishing commandant, Mrs. Bitch. The novel takes the guise of an autobiography by Smith, pseudonym for Evadne Price. The novels power comes from Smiths outrage at the senselessness of war, at her countrys complacent patriotism, and her own daily contact with the suffering and the wounded.
